Much Ado offers a professional educational program that brings the brilliance and fun of William Shakespeare's works to students of all ages. Much Ado is directed and staffed by professionally trained Shakespearean actors with extensive teaching experience. Beyond learning Shakespeare, students will develop self-esteem, confidence in front of groups, creative self-expression, vocal presence, leadership qualities, respect for others and teamwork abilities.

Much Ado works from the original text, preserving the Elizabethan English, while adapting the script for classroom use. This season, some of the plays being considered are:

Love's Labour's Lost * The Merry Wives of Windsor * The Taming of the Shrew
King Lear * Hamlet * The Merchant of Venice * Cyrano de Bergerac (Rostand)
Two Gentlemen of Verona * A Playdate with Shakespeare

All productions include stage combat, dance and song.

Program cost is $444* per student ($468* per charter student)

$20.00 per student discount on applications postmarked by July 31, 2017.

To begin registration, please find and review the Ventura Shakespeare 2017-2018 Registration Packet at www.muchadoaboutshakespeare.com and mail application and payment to address noted in the Packet.

(Includes non-refundable $75 per student deposit. Remaining balance due 9/15, 11/10 and 1/19.)*

Early Registration open to only last season's Ventura Shakespeare students July 17-24.
General Registration opens to public on July 25, 2017.
